MEDICINAL.

3 Preparations:
Alterative,
Tonic
AND Expectorant
FOR BLOOD
—AND SKIN!
A. B. C. Chemical Co.,
Richmond, Va.
Having for a long time suffered from the effects of a horrible blood trouble, and after resorting to medical skill and other remedies without success, I tried "A. B. C. Alterative," and have been entirely restored, and it affords me pleasure to attest its virtues. It is certainly a very great tonic and alterative, and I recommend any suffering from blood trouble, to try it.

Letter from Jerusalem

[Correspondence of the Alexandria GAZETTE.]

JERUSALEM June 23, 1890.—That the readers of the GAZETTE may know that we are yet alive and on the go we send this from the centre of Bible lands. We find Jerusalem to be a city of about 50,000 people. It is enclosed by a high wall and has about thirty watch towers and seven gates.

The ancient golden gate, through which our Lord made His triumphal entry into the city, is yet in perfect preservation but is closed. The streets of the city are narrow and dark, being arched over in many places.

Within the walls we find the Church of the Holy Sepulchre and all the sacred sites con-connected with the crucifixion. The devotion we see in these sacred places, especially by the sepulchre and at the summit of Calvary, makes an impression never to be forgotten;

these pilgrims from every part of the earth and of every tongue and color, pour out their hearts in the deepest devotion.

Then close by is the house of Pilate, the birth place of the blessed Virgin and the ancient prison for Christians. Then, near the south wall, we find the site of the Temple on the summit of Mount Moriah. The place is now occupied by a Mahometan mosque, in which no one is allowed to enter, but they congregate outside the Temple wall and weep every Friday in the most piteous manner. The Jews are despised and much abused by the Turks, yet there are many returning every year and Jerusalem is being rapidly built up again.

On the south part of the city we find the tomb of David on Mount Zion, which is also under the charge of the Musselmans, and no Christian is allowed to see it. East of and without the walls we find the valley of Jehoshaphat and the Brook Kedron, on the brow of which he find the Garden of Gethsemane, which is yet a well kept garden.

From here we ascend the Mount of Olive, upon which we find a fine tower, from which we look away over the hills of Judea and the wilderness. Then, far away to the east and beyond, we look down on the river Jer-dan flowing into the Dead Sea. Here, too, we can distinguish the mountains of Moab, and Mt. Nebo and the dreary plains of Jericho, where in a recent visit we could hardly distinguish the site of the ancient city, and in the dreary plain where the Israelites first encamped after crossing the Jordan. The most signs of life we saw were the fresh tracks of a prowling hyena and a few tents of Bedouin bands of robbers; thus armed body-guard is a necessity. The whole land of Judea and Samaria is more like a desert than anything else and everywhere camels are used as in the desert.

The grain is tramped out by the unmuzled ox and removed by hand as in the days of Ruth and Boaz.

The little village of Bethlehem is about two hours' walk from Jerusalem, and is inhabited by a native Christian population, where all pilgrims are well received. The manger and little stable grotto of the nativity is yet in perfect order with the living rock walls, as it was 1800 years ago. In the distance we see the hills upon which shepherds watched their flocks by night, and to-day and to-night they are engaged in the same calling on the same hills. Thus every view presents a sacred scene and site, the description of which we may read in the Bible. RAMBLER.

Wake Up.

If you wake up in the morning with a bitter or bad taste in your mouth, Langnor, Dull Headache, Despondency, Constipation, take Simmons Liver Regulator. It corrects the bilious stomach, sweetens the breath and cleanses the furred tongue. Children as well as adults sometimes eat something that does not digest well, producing Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Restlessness, or Sleeplessness—a good dose of Regulator will give relief. So perfectly harmless is this remedy that it can be taken by the youngest infant or the most delicate person without injury, no matter what the condition of the system may be. It can do no harm if it does no good, but its reputation for 40 years proves it never fails in doing good.
